

27TH NOVEMBER 2020

ACE CONFERENCE

ASSOCIATION FOR CHARACTER EDUCATION

“Enabling children and young people to flourish through the development of character.”

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

David Benson

The founding Principal of Kensington Aldridge Academy (KAA). He led the school from its opening with just one year group in 2014, to an “outstanding” Ofsted rating in 2017 and put the school in the top 3% nationally in terms of the progress students make. David led KAA through the challenging circumstances following the Grenfell Tower fire in June 2017 and was awarded by The Times Educational Supplement for his Service to Education. David was acknowledged by the Evening Standard’s as being one of the key “Change Makers” in London and is a published writer on education policy.

Damian Hinds

Former Education Secretary, set out the ‘five foundations’ for character education and advocated that character and resilience are equally as important as academic attainment. Damian has served on the Education Select Committee, and chaired the All Party Parliamentary Groups for Social Mobility and for Credit Unions. In 2015 he was appointed Exchequer Secretary to the Treasury, a role which he held until being appointed Minister for Employment in June 2016.

Sophie Murfin

National Teaching Awards finalist, Executive Principle of the Wise Owl Trust. Sophie has led all three primary academies in the Trust successfully through the ‘Schools of Character Kitemark Plus’ award.
